EMERCHANTS SIGNS NEW CUSTOMER AGREEMENT

Adept Solutions Limited (ASX:AAO) is pleased to announce that Emerchants Ltd (Emerchants) has secured a new contract with a leading Australian taxi organisation.

Under the terms of the contract, Emerchants will issue reloadable cards over the next 12 months to the client making them Emerchants' second largest customer using MasterCard debit.

The customer manages EFTPOS terminals for taxi drivers and it is using Emerchants' generic reloadable debit cards as part of the development of its payroll system.

Discussions between the parties are ongoing regarding further integration of the customer's systems with Emerchants' card management system and the possibility of a branded MasterCard solution for the taxi organisation in the future.

Adept Solutions Managing Director, Mr Bob Browning, commented, "We are particularly pleased with the expansion of the Emerchants portfolio. The diversity of industries within which these clients operate and the varied uses for which our cards are being configured is a testament to the flexibility and effectiveness of Emerchants' systems."
